The University of Detroit Mercy used an application process available to all students who were enrolled at any time between Winter 2020 and Winter 2022. Student applications were evaluated for need based on factors such as job loss/reduced wages, loss of housing, additional expenses related to online learning and additional health care/child care expenses due to COVID-19. Students with exceptional need were awarded a maximum of $3,000. Students with high need were awarded a maximum of $2,500. Students with moderate need were awarded a maximum of $2,000.

Instructions, directions, or guidance provided by the institution to students concerning the Emergency Financial Aid Grants will be posted at:

Students who were enrolled at any time between Winter 2020 and Winter 2022 were emailed a link to the HEERF III Grant Application. The link was also published on the university's public web page and included in the Campus Connection email distributed to all students, staff and faculty.
