

MA School Counseling Student Learning Outcomes

Student Learning Outcome 1:

School Counseling students demonstrate ethical conduct and compliance with the prevailing standards of practice.

Student Learning Outcome 2:

School Counseling students demonstrate culturally competent counseling practice.

Student Learning Outcome 3:

School Counseling students demonstrate competent clinical skills in individual and group counseling practice.

Student Learning Outcome 4:

School Counseling students demonstrate competency using clinical assessment instruments to assess needs and guide treatment planning.

Student Learning Outcome 5:

Counseling students demonstrate competence in performing the clinical duties and tasks relevant to School Counselor.

Submitted to the University Assessment Team on 12/14/2020.