

Dean's Debate takes a look at affirmative action

357

THE UNIVERSITY OF DETROIT MERCY SCHOOL OF LAW hosted a Dean's Debate titled "Affirmative Action and the November Ballot – Proposal 2" on Thursday, October 19, at the Atrium of the Law School Building in Detroit. Taking part in the debate were (left to right) Khaled Beydoun of the ACLU; Glenn Lenhoff of the Michigan Civil Rights Initiative; Lysa Postula-Stein of One United Michigan; Roger Clegg of the Center for Equal Opportunity; and UDM School of Law Dean Mark C. Gordon.

Photo by John Meiu

