November 3

The Parent Education Program is designed for parents who have never been married or are divorcing and have minor children. The program focuses on the needs of children to have access to both parents when the parents are no longer a couple. The Wayne Third Judicial Circuit Court provides this program and encourages all parents to attend. The program is held each Friday (with the exception of holidays) from 1 to 2:30 p.m., at the Coleman A. Young Municipal Building, Third floor Jury Room, 2 Woodward Ave., in Detroit. The program will be held on Friday, November 3. Additionally, there are evening programs scheduled throughout the Wayne County Area. For further details on the Parent Education Program, contact the program coordinator at (313) 224-6753.

"Boardmanship Essentials," the first in a series of seven BoardWALK workshops on building the capacity of current and prospective nonprofit board members and executive staff, will be held Friday, November 3, from 9 a.m. to noon in Room 336 in the Buell Management Building, Lawrence Technological University, 21000 West Ten Mile Road, in Southfield. The cost is $35 for individual workshops or $225 for the series of seven. BoardWALK is a collaborative program of the United Way for Southeastern Michigan, Detroit Executive Service Corps, and the Center for Nonprofit Management at Lawrence Technological University. Register online at www.uwsem.org under "Register for BoardWALK;" or contact Patricia McCann at (313) 226-9416 or patricia.mccann@uwsem.org.
