

Dean's Debate to look at affirmative action initiative

357
Mark C. Gordon, dean of the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law, announces a Dean's Debate on the controversial ballot initiative that would ban some aspects of affirmative action. Five student organizations, on both sides of the issue, asked for the debate to inform themselves and their fellow classmates about the Proposal.

The Dean's Debate will take place Thursday, October 19, from 5 to 6:30 p.m. in the School of Law's Atrium located at 651 E. Jefferson

The speakers against Proposal Two will be Khaled Beydoun of the ACLU, and Lysa Postula-Stein of One United Michigan.

The speakers for Proposal Two will be Roger Clegg of the Center for Equal Opportunity, and Glen Lenhoff of the Michigan Civil Rights Initiative.

The student organization sponsors include, ACLSA, BLSA, Federalist Society, LSDE, and National Lawyers Guild.