

Berry, Reynolds, & Rogowski

P.C. is pleased to announce that David W. Berry has been chosen to be listed in the 2007 edition of "The Best Lawyers in America" in the specialties of Land Use & Zoning Law. Land Use & Zoning Law is a new specialty in this publication, which has been published for almost 25 years.

Berry has specialized in zoning and land use, eminent domain, inverse condemnation, and property valuation litigation for more than 30 years. He is a shareholder of Berry, Reynolds, & Rogowski in Farmington Hills.

He previously served as chairman of the Zoning and Land Use Committee and he currently serves on the Condemnation Committee for the State Bar of Michigan's Real Property Section. He also sat on the governing Real Property Section Council. Berry is a member of the Litigation Section of the American Bar Association's Committee on Zoning, Land Use, and Condemnation.

He has written and lectured extensively about eminent domain, zoning, land use, and condemnation matters. He is the co-author of three chapters in the ICLE publication, "Michigan Law of Damages and Other Remedies," 3rd Edition, 2002, dealing with calculation of damages in condemnation cases.

Berry earned his law degree from the University of Detroit in 1975 and his B.A. from Albion College in 1970.

He is a member of the State Bar of Michigan, the American Bar Association, the Oakland County Bar Association, and the Detroit Metropolitan Bar Association. He is also a member of the Legislative Affairs Committee of the Building Industry Association of Southeastern Michigan and a member of the International Right of Way Association. He also sits on the Development Committee and Friends Committee of Crossroads for Youth.
