

She taught for 38 years at St. Hugo, Bloomfield Hills; St. Vincent, Detroit; St. Mary, Marshall; St. John, Jackson; St. Matthew, Flint; St. Felicitas, Chicago; St. Mark, Cleveland, Ohio; St. Cyprian, Riverview; St. Mary, Monroe, and St. Joseph, Trenton.

In 1988 Sister Margaret Mary was a part-time teacher at St. Charles in Newport and a part-time receptionist at St. Mary Conference Center in Monroe. From 1989-2003 she was a full-time receptionist at the conference center. She retired in 2004 and entered the Health Care Center in 2005.

Sister Margaret Mary attended St. Martin Elementary and High Schools, Detroit. She earned a bachelor's degree from Marygrove College, Detroit, and a master's degree from the University of Detroit.

Surviving is a sister, Helen Dowling.

She was preceded in death by her brother, John.

Memorials may be made to the IHM Retirement fund, 610 W. Elm Ave., Monroe, 48162-7909.