Titans get needed road win at UIC

Brandon Cotton scored 22 points to lead the visiting Titans to a 66-54 win over Illinois-Chicago on Saturday.

After trailing by six points at halftime, the Flames went on a 17-7 run to take a two-point lead on Jermaine Dailey's dunk with 11:21 left in the game. But the Titans (6-12, 3-4 Horizon League) answered with a 13-0 run of their own to take control of the game.

Detroit had a 40-25 rebounding advantage over

UIC (9-11, 4-3) and out-scored the Flames at the foul line, 16-4.

Brandon Bell added 11 points, and Ryvon Covile had nine points and a game-high 12 rebounds for the Titans.

Jon Goode added seven points off the bench for Detroit.

Othys Jeffers and Josh Mayo each scored 15 points for the Flames.
