

LANSING STATE JOURNAL

LANSING, MI

CIRC: 100,520

JAN 29 2007

Women's tennis remains undefeated

EAST LANSING — The Michigan State ³⁵⁷women's tennis team improved its record to 4-0 with a 7-0 shutout against Detroit Mercy on Saturday afternoon. The Spartans continued their strong play in doubles against Detroit Mercy, picking up wins in all three positions to take their season record to 11-0 in doubles play. They then went on to sweep singles, winning each of the six matches.

The win against Detroit Mercy came after the Spartans beat Eastern Michigan, 5-2, in the morning. The highlight of the day came when junior Christine Bader had a straight sets victory over the nationally ranked Vanessa Frankowski.

Michigan State will face Toledo at 11 a.m. on Saturday in East Lansing at the MSU Indoor Tennis Facility.