CURTIS A. Robertson has completed graduate studies at The University of Detroit-Mercy (UDM) and has been awarded joint degrees as a Jurist Doctor of Laws and a Master of Business Administration.

His honors while at UDM included receiving the law school's 2004 ALTA book award and, in November 2006, being only one of six law school students in the state to receive the Federal Bar Association's Edward H. Rakow Award for excellence in business and securities law.

Curt is also a scholarship recipient from the Shiawassee Legal Secretaries Association. While attending UDM, he has been employed at the law firms of Kahn, Kahn and Roosen, PC, in Troy, Mich., and Edmund Maciorowski, PC, in Bloomfield Hills, Mich.

The son of Charles and Barbara Robertson of Owosso and the grandson of Rudy Doubrava of Elsie, Curt holds a bachelor's (2001) from The University of Michigan and is a 1997 graduate of Owosso High School.
