March 30

The Parent Education Program is designed for parents who have never been married or are divorcing and have minor children. The program focuses on the needs of children to have access to both parents when the parents are no longer a couple. The Wayne Third Judicial Circuit Court provides this program and encourages all parents to attend. The program is held each Friday (with the exception of holidays) from 1 to 2:30 p.m., at the Coleman A. Young Municipal Building, Third floor Jury Room, 2 Woodward Ave., in Detroit. The program will be held on Friday, March 30. Additionally, there are evening programs scheduled throughout the Wayne County Area. For further details on the Parent Education Program, contact the program coordinator at (313) 224-6753.

Michigan State University Law School's nationally ranked Intellectual Property & Communications Law Program with the Michigan State Law Review, announced their fourth annual symposium, "What Ifs and Other Alternative Intellectual Property and Cyberlaw Stories" to be held Friday and Saturday, March 30 and 31, at MSU Law. The conference will be held at MSU College of Law from 9 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. on both Friday and Saturday, March 30 and 31. Attendance is open to the public and there is no registration fee. For more information, contact the MSU Law Events Office at (517) 432-6955, or visit www.law.msu.edu/ipclp/conference07/.

The University of Detroit Mercy (UDM) School of Law will conduct the fifth annual Voice for Justice auction on Friday, March 30, at 6:30 p.m. at the School of Law in downtown Detroit.
