

Law school event to aid fellowships

3-23-07
Det. Free Press

The University of Detroit Mercy School of Law will hold the fifth annual Voice of Justice at 6:30 p.m. March 30 at the school of law, 651 E. Jefferson.

Proceeds from the event will help fund the summer public interest fellowships and the law school's post-graduation loan forgiveness program for graduates who choose to work in the public interest sector.

Tickets are $20 and be purchased online by contacting Kristen Kerr at kerrke@udmercy.edu or at the door.