Frank Peery

Article Launched: 05/12/2007 10:47:45 PM PDT

Frank Peery, a resident of Plymouth Village retirement community in Redlands, died of congestive heart failure May 4 at Plymouth Village. He was 88.

Peery was born Jan. 11, 1919, in Natural Bridge, Va. He attended high school in Natural Bridge and college at the University of Detroit.

He served in the U.S. Army during World War II, assigned to the 15th Tank Battalion in the European Theater. He received a Purple Heart medal and a World War II Victory Medal.

In 1946 he met and married Vera Bennett in Detroit. They moved to California in 1954 and lived 35 years in Covina, where they raised their five children, Keith, Bruce, Margaret, Beth and Colleen. They retired to Hemet, and lived there for 18 years before coming to Redlands a year and a half ago.

According to family, he will be remembered for "his devotion to God, dedication to his family and his love for his wife." He will be missed by family and friends alike, his family said.

Survivors include his wife of more than 60 years, Vera Peery; children Bruce Peery, Margaret Van Dyke, Beth House and Colleen Patnyk; sister Eileen Goddard; 11 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 16, at the Plymouth Village assembly hall, 945 Salem Drive, Redlands. Emmerson-Bartlett Memorial Chapel in Redlands is handling arrangements.
