Lund to receive honor at banquet

Detroit's most popular annual summer baseball banquet will feature former Tigers outfielder and University of Michigan luminary Don Lund as its top award winner.

The Rev. Vincent Welch Memorial Dinner will be at 6 p.m., July 31, at the American Polish Cultural Alliance Center in Troy.

The dinner provides tens of thousands of dollars for scholarships at University of Detroit Mercy and Loyola High.

Joining Lund as a dinner headliner will be former Tigers Mickey Lolich, Bill Freehan and Reno Bertoia.

Former Tigers broadcaster Paul Carey will receive the Sister Mary Leila Award for distinguished service by a media member. Chuck Klonke, official scorer at Comerica Park and a longtime Metro Detroit sportswriter, will be a co-recipient.

Tigers front-office assistant Alice Sloane, who died in February, will be honored as a co-recipient of the Hank Aguirre Memorial Award.

Tickets are $125 per person, and $1,000 for a table of 10. For reservations, call (313) 768-1410.
