The Titans' No. 1 singles player was scheduled Sunday to play DePauw's Gree Markie in the finals.

Detroit Mercy, a member of the Horizon League, returns to action next Saturday and Sunday at the Bowling Green Invitational.

Hardy comeback

New Haven graduate D.D. Hardy hauled in three passes for 33 yards Saturday in the football season opener for Grand Rapids Community College.

The Raiders edged DuPage Community College, 30-27, on the road.

Hardy, a wide receiver, sat out his freshman year at Grand Valley State University because of academic reasons.

Bulldogs fall

Ferris State University dropped a 3-1 nonconference volleyball decision Saturday to Western Texas A&M.

Anchor Bay graduates Kristy Gilchrist and Andrea Rich led the Bulldogs with 13 kills and two aces, respectively.

Albion standouts

Toni Spana, a Marysville graduate, has earned a spot on the 16-player Albion College volleyball roster.

Spana is a 5-9 freshman outside hitter for the Britons.

Jamie Venia, a senior from Marysville, will compete for the Albion College's women's cross-country team this fall.

The Britons will host one of the most important meets of the season Oct. 27 - the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association championships.

Northern graduate Willie Howard is a 6-2, 230-pound junior defensive lineman on the football squad.

Former Tars spiker

Krissy Ciaramitaro, an Anchor Bay graduate, is a member of the University of Michigan-Dearborn volleyball team.

Ciaramitaro, a 5-9 junior outside hitter, played two years at Macomb Community College before transferring to U of M-Dearborn.

The squad returns to action Tuesday with a home match against Davenport College.

In the net

Port Huron Northern graduate Samantha Cuppen is off to a good start with the Concordia University volleyball team.

Cuppen, who played at St. Clair County Community College before transferring to Concordia, is a 5-11 junior outside hitter for the Cardinals.

In men's soccer, New Baltimore native Nick Nabors, a 5-9 junior, is a goalkeeper.

Laker on the run

Jake Hoover, a Capac graduate, is a sophomore on the Lake Superior State University men's cross-country team.

At the U.P. Collegiate Sept. 1 at Michigan Tech, Hoover placed 12th for the Lakers at 18 minutes, 28 seconds.
