

SEPT 12 2007

The Institute of Continuing Education

1020 Greene St.,
Ann Arbor, MI 48109

www.icle.org

- Seminar Name: 2nd Annual Family & Closely Held Business Institute
- Offered By: The Institute of Continuing Legal Education
Cosponsored by Business Law, Probate and Estate Planning, and Taxation Sections of the State Bar of Michigan
- Time/Date: Thursday, October 18, 2007
9:00 am to 5:00 pm
- Location: The Inn at St. John's, Plymouth
- Level: Intermediate/Advanced
- CLE Credits: 6
- Description: Unique issues are at the heart of every small business. Representing them requires a broad understanding of many practice areas. ICLE's advanced level seminar brings together national and local experts to help you manage the intersection of business strategies, family dynamics, taxes, and estate planning.

This first-of-its-kind program is based on a multimedia case study. Experts will walk attendees through the case and provide a broad overview of critical issues as well as best approaches to handle its thorny issues. You'll understand your varied roles and gain confidence in your ability to coordinate multiple issues for your clients.

- Fees: General admission fee: $285.00
Member of the cosponsoring section: $255.00
Michigan New Lawyer (P67000+) $235.00
ICLE Partners: $235.00
- Can't attend? Seminar handbook: $185.00
- About ICLE: ICLE is a nonprofit organization entirely self-supported by seminar registration fees and publications sales. ICLE is cosponsored by The State Bar of Michigan, The University of Michigan Law School, Wayne State University Law School, The Thomas M. Cooley Law School, The University of Detroit Mercy School of Law and Ave Maria School of Law.