1985 DUHS grad a 'Super Lawyer'

Friday, November 30, 2007 10:34 AM EST

Roger L. Myers, former Dowagiac resident and 1985 Union High School honors graduate, was recently selected as a 2007 "Michigan Super Lawyer."

Myers and his wife, Kelly, are partners in the recently-formed law firm, Myers and Myers, PLLC, located in Brighton.

Myers holds degrees from Southwestern Michigan College, the University of Notre Dame and received his juris doctor cum laude from the University of Detroit Law School in 1992.

Myers is a licensed State Bar member in both California and Michigan.

The Super Lawyer award is a distinction accorded the top 5 percent of attorneys in the state as chosen by their peers and through the independent research of Law and Politics magazine.

Michigan Super Lawyers 2007 is based on a survey of more than 30,000 attorneys across the state who have been in practice for five years or more.

Law and Politics performs the polling, research and selection of Super Lawyers who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement.

Myers is recognized as a Super Lawyer in the practice areas of business litigation, real estate and zoning and land use law.

Myers and Myers, PLLC, is a full-service business and real estate law firm, representing a diverse client base ranging from individuals and small businesses to Fortune 500 companies.

Myers and Myers, PLLC, is the largest law firm in Livingston County and can be found at www.myers2law.com.

Roger is the son of Gabe and Jo Ann Myers of Dowagiac.

He and his wife are the parents of two daughters and one son and reside in the Brighton area.
