Kucinich Kicks Off Campaign Swing Through Michigan

Dennis Kucinich is kicking off several days of stops in the state as the only Democratic presidential candidate who plans to campaign in Michigan ahead of next week's primary.

He told supporters in Troy Thursday night that America is losing its way in the world.

Kucinich called for U.S. withdrawal from Iraq, a single-payer national health insurance plan and an end to current free trade agreements.

The Ohio congressman plans a rally Friday at the University of Detroit Mercy.

The national Democratic party pressed candidates not to campaign in Michigan because it broke party rules by moving up its primary to Tuesday.

Only Kucinich, Hillary Clinton, Mike Gravel and Chris Dodd are on the Democratic ballot.
