The Plymouth-Canton Board of Education plans to interview three candidates this week as board members seek a successor to retiring Superintendent Jim Ryan.

The candidates are Paul Kadri, superintendent of the Neshaminy School District in Langhorne, Pa.; Dale Martin, superintendent of Downer's Grove Grade School District 58 in Downer's Grove, Ill., and Craig Fiegel, superintendent for Evergreen Park Elementary School District 124 in Evergreen Park, Ill.

Interviews are open to the public and will be at 454 S. Harvey, at 5 and 7 p.m. Monday and 6 p.m. Tuesday.

DETROIT: Member of COTS board is now its president

Detroit's Coalition On Temporary Shelter has named Ina G. Fernandez as its new board president.

Fernandez is no stranger to COTS, having been a long-term board member and closely involved with several of its major fund-raising initiatives in the past.

Fernandez works at Munder Capital Management. She also is on the boards of the Detroit Public Library Foundation and the Michigan Non-Profit Housing Corp.

Free play tells woman's story of Nazi resistance

The Hamtramck-based Piast Institute and the University of Detroit Mercy are hosting a free performance of "First Of All I Am a Human Being," a play based on a true story about a young Polish woman who worked with the Polish Underground during World War II as it resisted the Nazis.

The play will be presented at 2 p.m. Feb. 16 at the Marygrove College Theater in the Liberal Arts Building, 8425 W. McNichols. The free tickets are available on a first-come, first-served basis and can be obtained from the Piast Institute by calling 313-664-0321.

The Piast Institute's mission includes providing "unbiased information about current political, social and economic developments in Poland," its Web site says.
