The National Real Estate Network is Proud to Have Markwei Boye, Income Tax Consultant and Financial Planner, as a Guest Speaker at the Mega Evening Event in February, 2008

This opportunity is specifically for self-employed people and small business owners to learn ways to maximize deductions and pay less for income taxes

(EMAILWIRE.COM, January 28, 2008) Livonia, MI—Markwei Boye will speak at the Mega Evening Event in Livonia on February 17. He offers special tips and strategies for self-employed people, small business owners and people with home-based businesses. "With income tax day quickly approaching, the timing of this event couldn't be better," says Mark Maupin of National real Estate Network. "I expect a large crowd; those who attended when Markwei spoke last year were thrilled to take something of value with them to use in their 2006 tax planning."

Markwei Boye is the owner and CEO of Smart Business Int'l, P.L.L.C. He holds a Bachelors of Science degree in Finance from University of Detroit Mercy, a Masters in Business Administration (MBA) from Wayne State University and recently completed his coursework for his doctorate degree in Business Management from Argosy University of Chicago.

Markwei Boye has a website at <http://www.smartbusinesspllc.com/> where you can learn more about his business and services.

The meeting with Markwei Boye, February 21, 2008, will be at Laurel Manor, 39000 Schoolcraft Rd; Livonia, MI 48150, from 6pm to 9pm. Register for the Mega Evening Event by calling 248-762-0800
