Comptroller honors Maryland's top e-filers

ANNAPOLIS - In an effort to acknowledge Maryland tax preparers who file their clients' income tax returns electronically, Comptroller Peter Franchot honored 24 tax preparation services that recently implemented the use of e-filing for their clients. One tax preparer from each county and Baltimore was selected to receive this award. A total number of 1,383,289 tax returns were filed electronically for tax year 2006, of which 887,827 of them were filed by commercial tax preparers. Overall, there was a 9.71 percent increase from 2005 to 2006 in electronic filing.

Certificates were presented to the following:

Vickie K. Hott of Athena Accounting Services in Hancock

Robert W. Dollar of Araby United Methodist Church Volunteer Income Tax Assistance in Frederick, Md.
