Mobile law office in Pensacola Monday

A mobile law office providing legal assistance and representation to low-income veterans with federal benefits issues will be in Pensacola on Monday.

The stop is part of the Project Salute tour by the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law helping thousands of veterans nationwide.

The mobile office will be in Pensacola from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the American Legion Post 33, 1401 W. Intendencia St.

Several local attorneys, legal support groups and veterans organizations have agreed to help.
