

DETROIT LEGAL NEWS

DETROIT, MI

CIRC1,400

357

FEB 18 2008

Pauline Pensler has joined the Royal Oak law firm of Tomkiw Dalton as an attorney.

Pauline Pensler

Pensler focuses her practice on general civil litigation, as well as land use law, labor and employment law, general business law, and corporate transactions. She is licensed to practice in the State of Michigan and the Federal Eastern District of Michigan.

Prior to joining Tomkiw Dalton, Pensler interned with Oakland County 48th District Court Chief Judge Kimberly Small, and was a teaching assistant for legal writing at the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law.

Pensler earned her law degree from the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law in 2007. Prior to attending law school, Pensler received a bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan.