Two new members appointed to DKJA Board of Trustees

Published March 17th, 2008

FROM STAFF REPORTS

Donna Klein Jewish Academy President Michael Lewitt has announced the appointment of two new members to the school's Board of Trustees: Shelley Wolgin Blick and A. Robert Zeff.

Blick earned a Bachelor of Science degree in finance from George Washington University and is president of Forum Holdings, Inc. An avid tennis player, she is on the Boca Raton Museum of Art Friends board and a member of B'nai Torah Synagogue. Blick has two daughters and resides in Boca Raton.

She is serving on the DKJA Finance Committee and says that she looks forward "to helping DKJA continue its success as an aggressive competitor in the local and national independent school market, and to helping ensure that DKJA remains able to provide a Jewish day school education to any student regardless of his/her family's financial ability."

A. Robert "Bob" Zeff was born in Tel-Aviv, Israel. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Michigan and graduated from the University of Detroit Law School.

Managing partner of Zeff and Zeff, P.C., his law career has spanned more than 50 years. He is a member of the Inner Circle of Advocates, which is limited to 100 personal injury attorneys nationally. A golfer, Zeff and his wife Susan have homes in Boca Raton and Westport, Conn.

Bob states that he "looks forward to working with the full board to make the dream of a new DKJA campus with purpose-built facilities a reality for both the current and future Jewish children of our community."
