School of Law hosts Sixth Annual Public Interest Fellowship Auction

The University of Detroit Mercy School of Law's Sixth Annual Public Interest Fellowship Auction will take place Friday, April 4, at 6:30 p.m. in the Atrium of the Law School.

The proceeds fund fellowships for UDM law students to work during the summer for organizations that benefit the poor, disadvantaged or marginalized.

Among the items being auctioned are a 300 level suite at the Palace with 12 tickets and parking passes; an oceanfront condo in Mazatlan, Mexico; DTE Energy's Skybox with 14 tickets and parking passes to a Tigers game; a two bedroom, two bath condominium for one week in Scottsdale, AZ; a Northern Michigan vacation in a three bedroom, three bath condo on the third fairway of the Legend Golf Course in Shanty Creek Resort, and a Canadian Rail Vacation.

Tickets are $25 a person and include food, drinks and live jazz. For additional information, please contact Kristen Kerr at kerrke@udmercy.edu.
