TI Automotive appoints new Chairman & CEO

WARREN, Mich. - Bill Kozyra has been named chairman and CEO of TI Automotive.

Kozyra's appointment follows the planned retirement of former Chairman and CEO Bill Laule.

Kozyra comes to TI Automotive with more than 30 years of automotive experience, including leadership positions at Budd Company, Allied Signal, Bosch, ITT Automotive and Continental AG. Kozyra most recently was president and CEO of Continental AG's NAFTA operations and a member of the company's executive board.

In his new position with TI Automotive, Kozyra will be responsible for TI Automotive's Global Fluid Carrying Systems, HVAC and Global Fuel Systems businesses from its Michigan headquarters, overseeing approximately $3 billion in revenues, more than 100 facilities and approximately 18,000 employees.

Kozyra holds a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Detroit and a master's degree in business administration from Michigan State University.

TI Automotive is the world's leading supplier of fluid storage, transfer and delivery systems, including brake, fuel and air conditioning applications. With headquarter locations in Warren, Mich., and Oxford, England, the company employs more than 17,000 people at more than 100 facilities in 27 countries on six continents. Annual sales in 2007 totaled approximately $2.8 billion.
