Chelsea senior center receives funds

by The Ann Arbor News
Tuesday September 23, 2008, 12:30 PM

The Chelsea Community Foundation, an affiliate fund of the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan, has awarded $4,000 to the Chelsea Senior Citizens Activities Center.

The money will be used for a discussion series to examine great books that have been made into films.

The project, conducted in partnership with the McKune Memorial Library, will feature films based on books that recount major historical events addressing the challenges of society.

A public survey will be conducted to select four books to be shown on four Saturdays. Gregory Sumner, professor and chairman of the department of history at the University of Detroit-Mercy, will lead a series of discussions.

The Senior Citizens Activities Center is housed in the Washington Street Education Center.
