Hertz Schram PC Continues Growth with Addition of Eight New Attorneys: Six Former Redman Charlip Attorneys Join Firm

Detroit - Bloomfield Hills, Mich.-based law firm Hertz Schram PC (www.hertzschram.com) announced that it is expanding the breadth of its services with the addition of eight new attorneys to the firm, including several from the former firm of Redman Charlip PLLC. The eight new attorneys further strengthen the firm's existing real estate, litigation, tax, trusts and estates groups.

"We are pleased to have Ari Charlip and his associates from his former firm join our growing legal practice," said Victor Norris, managing shareholder of Hertz Schram PC. "The addition of these outstanding attorneys along with Jonathan Sweik and Steven Nofar significantly enhances our ability to serve our existing clients and increases our client base."

"Over the course of our firm's 30 year history, we have grown our firm to serve clients locally and nationally in a broad range of practice areas," added Norris. "Our comprehensive range of services include real estate, ERISA - pension benefits, family law, securities litigation, corporate, business and commercial law, banking and finance, probate and estate administration, estate and tax planning, criminal defense, class action, mass tort, product liability, personal injury, employment, medical and dental services, civil rights, appeals, education, qui tam -whistleblower, tax and entertainment law."

The former Redman Charlip attorneys now at Hertz Schram include:

Ari M. Charlip joins Hertz Schram as a partner in the firm's Real Estate practice group. He focuses on assisting major lenders and title insurance underwriters, as well as small, medium and large mortgage servicers with pre-foreclosure, and bankruptcy services, with an emphasis on real estate litigation, including title litigation, lien priority disputes, judicial foreclosures, contested evictions (commercial and residential), and adverse possession issues. His practice also includes real estate transaction (representing buyers and sellers) as well as commercial litigation for large corporations in Michigan.

He received his Juris Doctor from the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law and earned a BA from the University of Michigan. He is admitted to practice in the State of Michigan and the United States District Court of the Eastern and Western Districts of Michigan.

Deborah S. Lapin joins Hertz Schram as an associate. She has extensive litigation experience in both state and federal courts. Lapin focuses her practice in all aspects of real property litigation, particularly mortgage lien priority disputes, title insurance coverage disputes and other contractual disputes.

She received her Juris Doctor from the Western New England College School of Law in 1990 and earned a BA from the University of New Hampshire in 1987. She is admitted to practice in the States of Michigan, New York and Connecticut and is admitted to practice in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Amy Sabbota Gottlieb joins Hertz Schram as an associate. She concentrates her practice in the areas of real estate litigation including title litigation, property rights, lien priority disputes, title insurance coverage disputes and business litigation.
