AMES - Let it rain, let it rain, let it rain.

The Iowa State women's basketball team dropped in a school-record 18 3-pointers - eight by Heather Ezell - on its way to a 75-39 whitewashing of the University of Detroit Mercy on Sunday afternoon at Hilton Coliseum.

Ezell scored all of her game-ans season-high 24 points in the first half, going 8-for-11 from beyond the 3-point arc before intermission. She was the only one of 10 Cyclones who scored to reach double digits, making eight 3-pointers for the first time since last year's Big 12 Championship game against Kansas State.

"Overall I was pleased," said Iowa State coach Bill Fennelly. "These are really hard games in the sense that our kids have finals starting tomorrow. It's been a tough week with the Iowa game and the Drake game."

Alison Lacey and Nick Wieben both added nine points for the Cyclones (7-2), with Lacey and Amanda Nisleit pulling down seven rebounds apiece. Six different players made 3-pointers as Iowa State torched the Titans (2-6) from beyond the arc to establish a new school record.

"It was nice to get the first shots to fall, they were playing zone and we were able to knock some down and start off hot," said Ezell, who established a new career high with 16 3-point attempts.

"It's good to go into break on a high note. We'll work hard on finals and then get ready to go to Minnesota."

The Cyclones are off until Dec. 21, when they host Minnesota for a 2:30 p.m. game that will be televised by Mediacom.

Drake 65, Western Michigan 55

DES MOINES - The Drake women's basketball team scored the game's first eight points and took down Western Michigan 67-55 on Sunday at the Knapp Center.

Jordann Plummer scored all of her team-high 12 points in the first half as the Bulldogs (6-3) got out to a 15-point lead and scored their fourth straight home win.

Lauren Dybing added 11 points and Kristin Turk had 10 for Drake.

Colorado St. 55, UNI 53

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - Kim Mestagh's free throw with 9 seconds left gave Colorado State (3-6) a two-point lead, and Northern Iowa never got a shot up before the final buzzer.

Nicole Clausen and Lizzie Boeck scored 12 points apiece to lead the Panthers, who fell to 2-7.
