by Paul Neumeyer | The Saginaw News

Wednesday January 21, 2009, 12:01 AM

The 2009 Saginaw County Sports Hall of Fame ballot is in the mail to lifetime members, who are asked to vote on candidates in six categories.

Friday, March 20, is the deadline to submit completed ballots. Hall of Fame board members will announce the results during a 6:30 p.m. press conference Monday, April 20, at Saginaw Valley State University's Ryder Center.

Anyone wishing to become a lifetime member with full voting privileges can do so for a one-time fee of $50.

The ballot is the result of three months of review by the Hall of Fame's selection committee, which considers all submitted nominations and the categories each nominee best fits before settling on a final ballot. The committee will consider nominees not on this year's ballot again next year.
