

Dear CLASA supporters,

Sept. 8, 2021

Hello! I hope you are well. We invite you to the following event, which CLASA is co-sponsoring with University Ministry, The Office of Mission Integration, and The Catholic Studies Program in honors of Founders Week.

Sr. Simone Campbell, SSS, "Sacred Listening" Tuesday, Sept. 21, 7 p.m. Venue: Chemistry 114

Sr. Simone Campbell, SSS, will speak about Sacred listening, which is at the heart of the spiritual life. It is opening ourselves in the midst of our hectic lives and listening for the whisper of the divine. But it is not an individual solitary practice. In this time of national turbulence we are called to sacred listening to each other, to our planet, and finding the divine path in the process. Join us as we explore the personal and communal reality of the call to listen deeply to the reality around us.

Sister Simone Campbell, SSS is the former executive director of NETWORK Lobby for Catholic Social Justice – a federal advocacy organization founded by Catholic Sisters to lobby in Washington, D.C., for policies that mend the gaps in income and wealth in the United States. She has led six cross-country “Nuns on the Bus” trips focused on tax justice, healthcare, economic justice, comprehensive immigration reform, voter turnout, bridging divides in politics and society, and mending the gaps. She has appeared on 60 Minutes, The Colbert Report and The Daily Show with Jon Stewart. She is a religious leader, attorney and poet with extensive experience in public policy and advocacy for systemic change.
