College of Business Administration Honor Societies

The College of Business Administration will induct honorees into Alpha Iota Delta, Beta Alpha Psi, Beta Gamma Sigma and the Global Jesuit Business Student Association on Sunday, April 12.

Alpha Iota Delta

The purposes of Alpha Iota Delta are to confer distinction for academic excellence in the decision sciences and computer information systems; promote the infusion of the functional and behavioral areas of administration with the tools, concepts and methodologies of the decision sciences and computer information systems; and promote professional fellowship among students, faculty and administrators who share a common interest in the development of decision sciences and computer information systems.

Beta Alpha Psi

Beta Alpha Psi is a scholastic and professional society dedicated to the advancement of the financial information professions. The purposes of Beta Alpha Psi and the Alpha Xi Chapter at University of Detroit Mercy are to instill a desire for self-improvement, to foster high moral and ethical standards, to encourage and give recognition to scholastic and professional excellence, to cultivate a sense of responsibility and service, to promote the collegiate study of financial information and to provide for its members opportunities to associate with practicing professionals.

Beta Gamma Sigma

Beta Gamma Sigma – the International Scholastic Honor Society for Business – was founded in 1913. Membership in Beta Gamma Sigma, which is based on competitive academic standards, represents the highest international recognition that a student in the field of Business can achieve. The mission of Beta Gamma Sigma is to encourage and honor high academic achievement and personal excellence in the study and practice of business.

Global Jesuit Business Student Association

The mission of GJBSA is to recognize the academic achievements and community involvement of students attending Jesuit business schools worldwide. Through their personal and professional ventures, our members are committed to enriching the communities in which they live and work as well as establishing the benchmark for socially responsible organizations. The purposes of the St. Ignatius Chapter of the GJBSA are to confer distinction for academic excellence upon students attending Jesuit business schools and to encourage their pursuit of lifelong education, to acknowledge and promote a spirit of community involvement among its members, to promote and encourage ethical and socially responsible business practices among its members and in the global business community and to act as a catalyst for the advancement of business thought and theory
