

Service Recognition Program

Detroit Mercy has established a service recognition program to acknowledge employees with ten or more years of continuous full-time service. Service pins are presented to employees at five-year increments beginning at ten years and are symbols of recognition and appreciation for the employee's years of dedicated service with the University.